Why We Created WhatsNot™?

We wanted to create a place where customers will just sit, talk and have a good time. We provide a place where you can stay 7 days a week, 24 hours a day. We have a team of chefs who are always ready to cook for you. We have a team of servers who are always ready to serve you. We have a team of bartenders who are always ready to mix you a drink. We have a team of cleaners who are always ready to clean your table. We have a team of security guards who are always ready to protect you. We have a team of valet drivers who are always ready to take you to and from the car. We have a team of concierges who are always ready to help you. We have a team of event planners who are always ready to plan your event. We have a team of photographers who are always ready to take your picture. We have a team of videographers who are always ready to film your event. We have a team of DJs who are always ready to play your music. We have a team of MCs who are always ready to MC your event. We have a team of photographers who are always ready to take your picture. We have a team of videographers who are always ready to film your event. We have a team of DJs who are always ready to play your music. We have a team of MCs who are always ready to MC your event.

What is Making WhatsNot™ Happening?
